

Adnan Ahmed on CNSI's Contract Vehicle Strategy and Advice for New GovCon Firms

Adnan Ahmed, president of contractor CNSI, and his three other partners founded the Gaithersburg, Maryland-based company in 1994.

The information technology and outsourcing services company has since grown to be a holder of prime contracts and positions on major contract vehicles.

Read Full Article