ROCKVILLE, MD –CNSI, a fast growing, innovative provider of IT business solutions for government and commercial enterprises, today announced it has been named to Deloitte's prestigious Maryland Technology Fast 50 Program, a ranking of the 50 fastest growing technology companies in the area by Deloitte & Touche LLP, one of the nation's leading professional services organizations. Rankings are based on the percentage revenue growth over five years from 2000-2004. CNSI's increase in revenues of 203% from 2000-2004 earned the company a ranking of 26 in the Maryland Technology Fast 50. "Being named to the Maryland Technology Fast 50 for the fifth consecutive year is a testament to the hard work and dedication of CNSI's employees," said CNSI President B. Chatterjee. "Our consistent revenue growth is driven by CNSI's success providing innovative, technical solutions that solve our customers' greatest, mission-critical challenges." The Maryland Technology Fast 50 Program is hosted by Deloitte & Touche LLP, along with Wilmer, Culter, Pickering, Hale and Dorr and media sponsors PR Newswire and WTOP Radio Network. To qualify for the Technology Fast 50, companies must have had operating revenues of at least $50,000 in 2000 and $1 million in 2004, be headquartered in North America, and be a "technology company" defined as a company that owns proprietary technology that contributes to a significant portion of the company's
